THE SCREEN'S BIGGEST SENSATION IN RAPID SEQUENCE

THE TERRIBLE TRAIN WRECK

"THE WHIP"

Friday and Saturday, August 15th and 16th—First Show starts at 7 p. m. Second show starts at 9:15 p. m. Two complete shows each night.

Without the slightest warning of any kind the fast Saratoga Express, speeding along at the rate of 75 miles an hour, crashed into the box car splintering it to pieces and derailing the entire train of eight coaches with its hundreds of human freight, sending all to their death over a steep embankment. This terrible catastrophe was carefully planned and executed because of a bet made at the Saratoga race track on the famous race horse known as "THE WHIP." Because it was known "THE WHIP" would win the race, plotters tried to destroy the horse before it could reach the race track. "THE WHIP" was being taken to Saratoga in a box car attached to the rear end of the Overland Special, but was detached from the train and left standing in the path of the fast Saratoga Express without lights or safety signals. Speeding along at terrific speed the Saratoga Express hurled itself into the car before, the engineer had an opportunity to put on the brakes, and the entire train was thrown over a steep embankment. The race horse, "THE WHIP" was found nearby in keeping with its trainer, and Earl Brancaster, a young sporting man who had raced in his high powered motor car to the rescue of the horse and train, when he learned over the phone of the conspiracy to wreck the train. From him it was learned that Baron Sartoris, a foreign nobleman was responsible for the terrible wreck. The Baron was arrested, also a Mrs. D'Aquila. Both were put through the "third degree." After a night of questioning the Baron finally broke down and confessed his guilt. "THE WHIP" is in a class by itself. The picture cost 200,000 dollars. The hunt scene with two hundred dogs and a hundred daring riders tearing across country, the wild ride in the racing auto and the explosion of the car and other gigantic thrills that fill "THE WHIP" with astonishment and excitement.
